

Carrie LaPonza

My name is Carrie LaPonza. I currently attend California State University, Los Angeles where I am pursuing a Master of Science Degree in Mechanical Engineering and plan to graduate this fall. I have a Bachelor of Science Degree in Mathematics and a minor in Computer Science from California State University, Monterey Bay. While at California State University, Monterey Bay I was a four year member of the Women's Soccer Team and President of Student-Athletes for two years. The past two summers I have worked as an Intern with The Boeing Company in Research and Technology. Last summer I received a patent for the work I did with the company. I have worked on the research and development of new software. I enjoy playing soccer, spending time with my family, hanging out with friends and spending time outdoors.
