

Biographical Sketch – Jeff Colwell, Ph.D., P.E.

Dr. Jeff Colwell is currently a member of the Thermal Sciences group at Exponent – Failure Analysis where his interests include ignition, explosions, fires and combustion. He received his Ph.D. in Mechanical Engineering from Arizona State University and has Master's degrees in engineering from Stanford and Purdue.

Biographical Sketch – Dr. Robert E. Peck

Dr. Robert Peck is currently Professor of Mechanical Engineering at Arizona State University. He received his Ph.D. from the University of California at Irvine and has over 30 years of experience in combustion research. Dr. Peck is director of the ASU Combustion Laboratory that has on-going basic and applied research programs on gas-turbine combustion, radiant burner technology, air pollutant formation and control, and fuel systems safety. Dr. Peck is an active participant in The Combustion Institute and has been an industrial consultant on combustion/heat transfer technology.
