

Captain John M. Cox

Safety Operating Systems President

A veteran major airline, corporate and general aviation pilot, Captain John Cox has flown over 14,000 hours with over 10,000 in command of jet airliners. Additionally, he has flown as an instructor, check pilot, and test pilot in addition to his extensive involvement in global air safety.

AWARDS AND RECOGNITION

- Appointed Fellow of the Royal Aeronautical Society, London, England
- Appointed member of the International Society of Air Safety Investigators (ISASI)
- Master Air Pilot Certificate presented by the Guild of Air Pilots and Air Navigators
- Air Line Pilots Association Air Safety Award (ALPA's Highest Safety Award)
- Air Line Pilots Association Leadership Award
- Air Line Pilots Association Steering and Oversight Award
- US Airways Safety Achievement (US Airway's Highest Safety Award)
- US Airways Boeing 737 Training Department Certificate of Appreciation

PUBLIC APPEARANCES AND SPEAKING ENGAGEMENTS

- National Transportation Safety Board – Witness (twice)
- National Safety Council Congress - Numerous guest lectures
- ALPA Air Safety Week – Host 2001, 2002, 2003, 2004
- Flight Safety Foundation – Speaker in numerous seminars
- International Society of Air Safety Investigators – Speaker
- International Federation of Air Line Pilot Associations – Numerous lectures
- University of Southern California – Numerous guest lectures
- Embry Riddle Aeronautical University - Numerous guest lectures
- Department of Transportation's Transportation Summit - Numerous guest lectures
- Queens College, Charlotte, North Carolina - Guest Lecturer
- SAE G-10- Society of Automotive Engineers Aerospace Conference – Speaker
- Over 100 aviation media interviews

AIR SAFETY POSITIONS HELD

December 2004 - February 2001:

- Executive Air Safety Chairman, Air Line Pilots Association (ALPA)

Served as the top safety official for the largest non-governmental air safety organization in the world.

February 2001 - March 2000:

- Executive Air Safety Vice-Chairman, Air Line Pilots Association (ALPA)

Served as second-in-command of the ALPA Served as the top safety official for the largest non-governmental air safety organization in the world.

May 1995 - August 1986:

Numerous safety positions for a major US airline

- Central Air Safety Chairman
- Central Air Safety Vice-Chairman
- Regional Air Safety Chairman
- Local Air Safety Committee Chairman
- Local Air Safety Committee member

AVIATION EMPLOYMENT

December 2004 to Present

- President, Safety Operating Systems, Washington, DC

December 2004 - February 1980

- Captain, Check Airman, Acceptance Test Pilot, Ferry Pilot for major US airline

Scheduled Air Carrier operations in North America, Caribbean and Bermuda.

Operations in one of the world's most technically advanced aircraft in all weather conditions to domestic and foreign destinations.