

Monsieur Christian Fabre

Monsieur Fabre graduated from Engineers school (Mechanics), with a degree in Aerodynamics & Thermodynamics.

His professional experiences include :

- 5 years spent at SNPE as responsible for laboratories in charge of propellant mechanical properties determination and propellant burning rate evaluation.
- 5 years spent at ROXEL (engine manufacturer for tactical missiles) in charge of evaluating the engines (Ramjet & Ramrocket) performances and conducting specific studies on this matter.
- Since 1996 at Airbus (Design Office) as Fire Protection/Rotor Burst Team Manager and Designated Certification Specialist For Airbus WB.
- Current position (since 2002): Airbus, Research Project Manager for the Domain Engine & Nacelle Integration.