

Results of World-wide Heat Release Rate Testing of Aircraft Cabin Materials Round Robin

Richard Johnson, FAA (Retired), Atlantic City Intl. Airport, NJ

The purpose for the FAA sponsored round robin using the OSU heat release test apparatus to determine current heat release data will be discussed. Three different panels were tested in order to observe possible variations in use of this apparatus. These findings and possible actions to narrow the different results will be discussed.