

Nancy B. McAteeFire and Explosion Investigator/Chemist*National Transportation Safety Board*Office of Research and Engineering-Materials Laboratory Division

NTSB Experience: Employed at the Safety Board since 1997 as a fire and explosion investigator and chemist. Performs fire and explosion investigations for all modes. Participated in the investigations of several major accidents including the Ecstasy cruise ship fire, TWA 800, Swiss Air and the UPS DC-9 cargo fire. Also assisted with numerous general aviation accident investigations and several international aviation accidents. Developed chemistry studies to support investigations including Alaska Airlines 261. Teaches the fire and explosion investigation component at the Board's Aviation Accident Investigation School.

Other Experience: Worked as research chemist, Idaho National Laboratory. Completed fire investigation internships with the Fort Worth, Texas, Fire Department-Arson/Bombs, and the Henrico County, Virginia, Division of Fire-Office of the Fire Marshal. Ms. McAtee is a Certified Fire and Explosion Investigator-National Associate of Fire Investigators.

Education/Training:

B.S. Chemistry (1993), Texas Wesleyan University.

M.S. Criminal Justice/Forensic Science (with specialty in fire investigation) (1996), Virginia Commonwealth University.