

Biography:

Joseph Panagiotou

Employed since 2002 by the National Transportation Safety Board in the materials laboratory as a Fire and Explosion investigator. Responsible for the investigation of fire and explosion accidents in all modes of transportation. Investigations include both commercial and general aviation accidents and incidents involving fire. Particular interests within the field include methods to evaluate material flammability, fire suppression & detection systems as well as fire investigation forensics.

Education:

2002, B.S in Fire Protection Engineering from the University of Maryland

2004, M.S in Fire Protection Engineering from the University of Maryland