

Richard Leibfried

Richard Leibfried, Technical Sales and Marketing Manager, graduated with a B.S in Polymer Science from Penn State. He has over 20 years of experience in PEEK and high-performance polymers, including 15 years in technical service and processing development. Rich has also developed technologies to make thin PEEK films, pipes and coatings and is involved in application development across several industries including aerospace.